NOTES

1. The morbid conditions relating to a still-birth are divided into two groups. In Group 1 are those conditions causally related to the "IMMEDIATE CAUSE" and in Group 2 those not causally related thereto. In most cases the completion of Group 1 will be sufficient. When it is necessary to record more than one entry these should be stated in order so as to indicate their mutual relationship.
2. Follow these instructions:
- (a) name first the "Immediate Cause" of death, i.e., the disease, injury or complication which caused death (not mode of dying or terminal condition);
 - (b) then give other morbid conditions (if any) of which the immediate cause was the consequence, in order of causal relationship stating the most recent one first and then the others in order;
 - (c) Group 2 is reserved for other important contributory morbid conditions, particularly when death was due to a combination of maladies, none of which would have been fatal alone; and
 - (d) use accepted terms for morbid conditions and never record mere symptoms only.
3. The following examples illustrate the essential principles in the use of the form:

GROUP 1	Example 1	Example 2	Example 3

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The morbid conditions relating to death are divided into two groups. In Group 1 are those conditions causally related to the "IMMEDIATE CAUSE" and in Group 2 those not causally related thereto. In most cases the completion of Group 1 will be sufficient. Detailed certification is not required, the entry of a single cause being preferable in cases where a single cause is sufficient, as in Example 1. Where the person completing the certificate finds it necessary to record more than one cause, it is important that they be stated in the position provided on the form as indicative of their mutual relationship.
2. Follow these instructions:
- (a) name first the "Immediate Cause" of death, i.e., the disease, injury or complication which caused death (not mode of dying or terminal condition);
 - (b) then give the other morbid conditions (if any) of which the immediate cause was the consequence, in order of causal relationship stating the most recent one first and then the others in order;
 - (c) Group 2 is reserved for other important contributory morbid conditions, particularly when death was due to a combination of maladies, none of which would have been fatal alone;
 - (d) use accepted terms for morbid conditions and never record mere symptoms;
 - (e) maternal deaths—qualify all diseases resulting from child-birth, miscarriage or abortion by the word "puerperal", for example, puerperal septicaemia; distinguish between septicaemia originating in abortion and in child-birth;
 - (f) cancer—specify the organ or first part affected;
 - (g) violent deaths—where a death was due to a violent cause, the person completing the medical certificate shall indicate clearly whether the death was due to accident, suicide or homicide, and the manner and nature of the injury which resulted in death; where the death was due to accident the circumstances thereof shall be stated as fully as possible, for example, an automobile accident shall always be designated as such.
3. The following examples illustrate the essential principles in the use of the form:

GROUP 1	Example 1	Example 2	Example 3	Example 4	Example 5

SCHEDULE 3

PRAYERS FOR RELIGIOUS EXERCISES

1. Most merciful God, we yield Thee our humble and hearty thanks for Thy Fatherly care and preservation of us this day, and for the progress which Thou hast enabled us to make in useful learning; we pray Thee to imprint upon our minds whatever good instructions we have received, and to bless them to the advancement of our temporal and eternal welfare; and pardon, we implore Thee, all that Thou hast seen amiss in our thoughts, words and actions. May Thy good providence still guide and keep us during the approaching interval of rest and relaxation; so that we may be prepared to enter on the duties of the morrow with renewed vigour both in body and mind, and preserve us, we beseech Thee, now and forever, both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, for the sake of Jesus Christ, Thy Son, our Lord. Amen.
2. Lighten our darkness, we beseech Thee, O Lord and by Thy great mercy defend us from all danger; and perils of this night, for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

3. Our Father, Which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen.

4. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with us evermore. Amen.

797. During the period between the pronouncement of the judgment nisi and the granting of the judgment absolute, any person may intervene or may give notice of desire to show cause why the judgment should not be made absolute by reason of the same having been obtained by collusion or by fraud or by reason of material facts not brought before the Court or for any other valid reason.

- (b) an affidavit of the plaintiff made after the expiration of the said period and within 10 days of the date of the filing of the application that the deponent has not, since the granting of the judgment nisi, cohabited with the defendant spouse; and, where necessary, the particulars required by Rule 802; and

- (3) In the case of a Local Registrar he shall then transmit the documents mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) together with his certificate of such search to the Registrar.

- (7) In the case of an action commenced elsewhere than at Toronto the Registrar shall certify to the Local Registrar when judgment absolute has been granted and the judgment shall be settled by the proper officer in whose office the action was commenced, unless any party affected applies to the Registrar at Toronto to settle the same or to reconsider the settlement of the same by the local officer.
- (8) If the Judge decides that judgment absolute should not be granted in the first instance, he shall adjourn the hearing of the application and direct that notification of such adjournment be given to the applicant by the Registrar, or in actions commenced elsewhere than at Toronto by the Local Registrar, and he may direct that the applicant serve notice of the application on any person who appears to be interested therein.
- (9) The Judge giving such direction shall state shortly his reasons in writing.
- (10) Where the hearing of the application has been adjourned in the first instance any party may apply to have the application disposed of at any sittings of the Court and a Judge may make such order as he sees fit.

804. The affidavits required of a party by these Rules shall not be necessary if such party is a mentally incompetent person or is a person who has been declared incapable under the provisions of The Mental Incompetency Act, but the committee, next friend or guardian of such party shall, in lieu thereof, file an affidavit showing that he has made careful inquiry into the facts and that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief the facts required to be deposited to if the party were mentally competent are true.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Application for Certification of Bargaining Agent

7.—(1) A trade union claiming to have as members in good standing a majority of employees of one or more employers in a unit that is appropriate for collective bargaining may, subject to the rules of procedure of the Board and in accordance with this regulation, make application to the Board to be certified as bargaining agent of the employees in the unit.

(2) Where no collective agreement is in force and no bargaining agent has been certified under the Act or these regulations for the unit, the application may be made at any time.

(3) Where no collective agreement is in force but a bargaining agent has been certified under the Act or these regulations for the unit, the application may be made after the expiry of twelve months from the date of certification of the bargaining agent, but not before, except with the consent of the Board.

(4) Where a collective agreement is in force, the application may be made at any time after the expiry of ten months of the term of the collective agreement, but not before, except with the consent of the Board.

(5) Two or more trade unions claiming to have as members in good standing of the said unions a majority of employees in a unit that is appropriate for collective bargaining, may join in an application under this regulation and the provisions of these regulations relating to an application by one union and all matters or things arising therefrom, shall apply in respect of the said application and the said unions as if it were an application by one union.

8. Where a group of employees of an employer belong to a craft or group exercising technical skills, by reason of which they are distinguishable from the employees as a whole and the majority of the group are members of one trade union pertaining to such craft or other skills, the trade union may apply to the Board subject to the provisions of regulation seven, and shall be entitled to be certified as the bargaining agent of the employees in the group if the group is otherwise appropriate as a unit for collective bargaining.

Certification

9.—(1) Where a trade union makes application for certification under these regulations as bargaining agent of employees in a unit, the Board, in determining whether the unit in respect of which the application is made is appropriate for collective bargaining, may, before certification, if it deems it appropriate to do so, include additional employees in, or exclude employees from, the unit, and shall take such steps as it deems appropriate to determine the wishes of the employees in the unit as to the selection of a bargaining agent to act on their behalf.

(2) When, pursuant to an application for certification under these regulations by a trade union, the Board has determined that a unit of employees is appropriate for collective bargaining

- (a) if the Board is satisfied that the majority of the employees in the unit are members in good standing of the trade union; or
- (b) if, as a result of a vote of the employees in the unit, the Board is satisfied that a majority of them have selected the trade union to be a bargaining agent on their behalf;

the Board may certify the trade union as the bargaining agent of the employees in the unit.

(3) Where an application for certification under these regulations is made by a trade union claiming to have as members in good standing a majority in a unit that is appropriate for collective bargaining, which includes employees of two or more employers, the Board shall not certify the trade union as the bargaining agent of the employees in the unit unless

- (a) all employers of the said employees consent thereto; and
- (b) the Board is satisfied that the trade union might be certified by it under this regulation as the bargaining agent of the employees in the unit of each such employer if separate applications for such purpose were made by the trade union.

(4) The Board may, for the purposes of determining whether the majority of the employees in a unit are members in good standing of a trade union or whether a majority of them have selected a trade union to be their bargaining agent, make or cause to be made such examination of records or other inquiries as it deems necessary.

- (c) if, at the time of certification, a collective agreement binding on or entered into on behalf of employees in the unit is in force, the trade union shall be substituted as a party to the agreement in place of the bargaining agent that is a party to the agreement on behalf of employees in the unit, and may, notwithstanding anything contained in the agreement, upon two months' notice to the employer terminate the agreement in so far as it applies to those employees.

Revocation of Certification

11. Where in the opinion of the Board a bargaining agent no longer represents a majority of employees in the unit for which it was certified, the Board may revoke such certification and thereupon, notwithstanding regulations fourteen and fifteen, the employer shall not be required to bargain collectively with the bargaining agent, but nothing in this regulation shall prevent the bargaining agent from making an application under regulation seven.

Notice to Negotiate

12. Where the Board has under the Act or these regulations certified a trade union as a bargaining agent of employees in a unit and no collective agreement with their employer binding on or entered into on behalf of employees in the unit, is in force,
